

STUDENT MEMBERSHIP RECOMMENDATION LETTER

The Arab Council for the Social Sciences (ACSS) is a regional, independent non-profit organization headquartered in Beirut, Lebanon and working across the Arab region as well as globally. The ACSS structure includes a General Assembly, an elected Board of Trustees, and a Secretariat.

The ACSS is dedicated to strengthening social science research and knowledge production among individuals and academic/research institutions in the Arab region.

The ACSS currently offers two kinds of membership: Institutional and Individual. Conditions, rights and responsibilities of membership are outlined in Articles V, VI and VII of the ACSS Charter. Students registered for a PhD (or its equivalent) in a social science discipline at a recognized educational institution can apply to become Student Members (non-voting).

As the student applicant's supervisor, please return a completed and signed copy of this form directly to the student, who should then upload this to their membership application.

By signing this form, I certify that _____ (Family Name/First name) is a student in good standing, currently enrolled at _____ (name of university).

As this student's supervisor, I recommend this student for membership in the ACSS, as an active scholar, dealing with the Arab region, and with good future potential.

Please provide the following:

Student's _____ specialization: _____
Student's _____ dissertation _____ title/topic _____ (if _____ available): _____

Supervisor details:

Family Name: _____ First Names: _____

Rank: _____ Year of PhD receipt: _____

Institution that awarded PhD: _____

Additional Comments (optional): _____

Signature: _____

All applications are reviewed by the Council's Membership Committee.
